'THE RAVEN' TELLS HISTORY OF POE

Lew Hoffman, pantomime hat juggle, and Bob Cook and Dot Oatman, singers and burlesquers who have been appearing at the National theater this week, will be seen for the last time this evening. It is possible, however, that the last-mentioned act may return a week hence, as Cook and Oatman have a different turn with entirely new business that they have not yet given. The time of both acts is entirely engaged next week for shows at the different army posts on Oahu.

Charles Hoyt's comedy, "A Texas Steer," will be shown in its film version for the last time tonight. Heralded as one of the most unusual and weird photo-dramas that have been seen here in a long time is the six-part film, "The Raven," which will be shown the first half of the coming week beginning tomorrow evening. It is the romantic story of Edgar Allen Poe's life, showing how his career and his home were shattered by his love of liquor and of how these tragic events returned uncannily to him in the form of the raven, which perched in the brilliant poet's library and creaked its incessant forebodings of the future.

MAUDE FEALY IS SEEN AT EMPIRE

Maude Fealy in the three-act drama-tization of Howard Fielding's story, "The Girl from Tim's Place," is the attraction at the Empire theater today. It is rated one of the best film productions of recent months, ending in a manner which startles every spectator. This is the first appearance of Miss Fealy in Honolulu, although she is famous throughout the country for her work on the legitimate and also the silent stage. In "The Girl from Tim's Place" the talented little artist has a role essentially different from anything in which she has been seen on the stage.

Billie Reeves, the screen comedian of international fame, has a splendid opportunity to make much of the roaring farce, "When Wife Sleeps."

The Empire will introduce a new "Ham" comedy, "Some Romance." The funny Ham and Bud become involved in a host of laughable complications.

'OLD HOMESTEAD' BEST RURAL PLAY

With the performance this evening, "The Old Homestead," Denman Thompson's famous rural play, closes at the Liberty theater to make way for Geraldine Farrar, who returns to the Liberty in her latest screen triumph, "Temptation." Miss Farrar opens tomorrow evening and will continue for the first half of the week.

After more than 30 years of continuous and unparalleled popularity as a play, during which period it circled the globe three times and was presented to 20 million people, this play has been converted into a Paramount picture by the Famous Players Film Company, thus truly immortalizing what may justly be termed the greatest single triumph of the American stage. It was the irresistible simplicity of the human play and its tender story which bases its appeal upon real heart-interest and upon its depiction of every-day characters that everyone recognizes, that have made its popularity endure for more than three decades. It was this fundamental wealth of universal interest that caused "The Old Homestead" to become the foremost dramatic classic of our time and makes the photo-play adaptation of the lovable play one of the most important screen events in all the annals of motion pictures.

THEDA BARA IS SCORING SUCCESS

Theda Bara continues to fascinate and charm large audiences at the Hawaii theater. In "Lady Audley's Secret" is given a role that differs considerably from anything previously essayed by this talented artist in Honolulu, but the same brilliant talent is displayed here as heretofore. "Lady Audley's Secret," the William Fox photo dramatic success, in which Theda Bara scored such a tremendous personal triumph, is one of the best known of the plays of Mary Elizabeth Braddon. In this play there is a wonderfully dramatic story strongly presented. It tells of the struggles of a young woman, cursed with a hereditary madness, who is left destitute by her husband and who, not knowing whether he is alive or dead, finally marries another man. In the strong climax of the play, where Lady Audley (Theda Bara) goes mad, there is seen dramatic action of a caliber rarely if ever seen before.

TWO FORMER FAVORITES OF STAGE GO IN FOR MOVIES

Word has reached Honolulu that Ferris Hartman, who brought a company of players here a few years ago, is now in the moving picture business in New York, assisting Roscoe "Patty" Arbuckle in the work of arranging productions.

A few years ago "Fatty" Arbuckle was in the employ of Ferris Hartman and many Honolulu people will remember the big actor who appeared with the Hartman company at the Royal Hawaiian Opera House. This is only another incident of the change that has been made in the mimic world through the advancement of the moving picture business.

The chewing gum has cost this country $25,000,000 annually.

Au Revoir to Bob Cook & Dot Oatman

The most delightful act attracting attention in Honolulu. And Lew Hoffman absolutely an incomparable artist. Funniest man facing an audience.

The Artists' Joint Letter to You

Dear Reader:
It is with many regrets that we leave you temporarily—our engagement in Honolulu with the National Theater has been a peculiarly happy one and our love for your island is intense. Commencing Sunday we play the following Fort Theaters and we know a welcome awaits us: Sunday—1st Infantry. Monday—Cavalry and Artillery. Tuesday—25th Infantry. Wednesday—Kamehameha. Thursday—Fort Shafter. Friday—4th Cavalry.

We have suggested to Messrs. Byrne & Denniston, the National Theater management, that we are desirous of returning to "Honolulu's Home of Happiness." They have gladly agreed, so we are returning the following week to renew our pleasant associations with Honolulu theater-goers, therefore we say only
"AU REVOIR."
